

Travel information - Important notes

Porquerolles is an island and the most common way to get there is to take the ferry from La Tour Fondue ferry terminal.

The last ferry on Sunday September 1 leaves La Tour Fondue at 7:00pm.

No cars are allowed on the island. Parking lots are available close to the ferry terminal if you arrive by car.

Several options are available to reach La Tour Fondue ferry terminal (see next page) depending on the travel solution you take. You may:

- 1) arrive in Hyères or Toulon by train,
- 2) fly to Toulon-Hyères from Paris-Orly airport,
- 3) fly to Marseille or Nice,
- 4) drive to La Tour Fondue ferry terminal.

Please be aware that you need to add some extra time for transfers, especially if you take buses. Please check the bus schedules when provided.

- 1) For your arrival on Sunday September 1, a quite straightforward option is to take TGV 6155. This train leaves Paris Gare de Lyon train station at 9:07am and arrives at Hyères train station at 1:43pm (travel time: 4h36min). You may opt for trains which leave later from Paris, but there a change in Marseille or Toulon.
- 2) Toulon-Hyères airport has direct flights from Paris-Orly operated by Air France. Flight time is about 1h20min. Please make your flight reservations to Toulon as early as possible.
Flights to Toulon-Hyères operated by other airline companies are also offered from a very few cities in Europe such as Brussels South Charleroi, Rotterdam, Genève and Southampton, see <http://www.toulon-hyeres.aeroport.fr/en/destinations/map>
- 3) Alternative solutions consist of flying to Marseille Provence or Nice Côte d'Azur airports. Please be aware that the journey to La Tour Fondue is quite long from there (about 4 hours from Marseille, 4h 30min from Nice).
- 4) If you drive to La Tour Fondue ferry terminal, you will need to park your car in one of the parking lots located close to the ferry terminal.
